Bag a bargain at the Motor Show

Some of this year's hottest car bargains will be offered at Australia's biggest showroom when the Melbourne Motor Show opens at 5 pm next Friday, 27 February.

Australia's leading car companies will have their latest models on display – and in many cases for sale – at the Melbourne Exhibition Centre at Southbank.

More than 30 car companies, representing 94.9 per cent of Australia's total car sales, will be there for Australia's only major motor show of 2009.

Every one of them will be keen to talk to interested customers, either following up at people's local dealers after the Show or even doing hot deals right there and then.

From family hatches to convertibles, limousines to supercars, there will be special offers for keen buyers, from brands as diverse as Suzuki, Subaru and Peugeot, even fabled marques such as Lamborghini and Bentley.

For Bentley luxury, Peugeot panache or just getting from A to B, there are bargains to be had at Melbourne Motor Show.

With nearly 500 cars on show, priced from less than $15,000 to more than $800,000, there will be something to suit the needs and budget of just about any new car buyer.

Melbourne International Motor Show opens at 5pm on Friday 27 February and runs until 6 pm on Monday 9 March at the Melbourne Exhibition Centre.

It is organised and promoted by the Victorian Automobile Chamber of Commerce through its dealer division the Australian Automobile Dealers Association (Vic).
